Overview

As an organisation, we recognise that slavery and human trafficking are significant human rights issues and are committed to taking appropriate and proportionate steps to mitigating the risks of these occurring within our business and our supply chain.

Our Commitments

The DE Group are committed to ensuring total transparency in our business and the ways in which we aim to tackle modern slavery throughout our supply chains which are in strict accordance with The Modern Slavery Act 2015.

The DE Group apply zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. In order to ensure all those in our supply chain comply with our values, we require our supply chain to contractually commit to compliance with this Statement & Policy.

Responsibilities

We at The DE Group undertake full responsibility for implementing actions required to comply with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and applicable best practice as relevant to The DE Group. This will be achieved through training and continual review through contract management.

Applicability & Actions Taken

The statement is published on our website www.degrouppuk.com

Continual reviews are undertaken to identify where possible, if modern slavery is a risk within The DE Group or via its approved suppliers. This is monitored by the use of relevant KPI's and our whistleblowing policy. Full details are located within The DE Group Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy.

The DE Group have mandated, that our supply chain have completed our pre-qualification process. Which has been amended to include questions relating to the Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Act.

The DE Group are issuing a questionnaire to all labour only suppliers which asked them to confirm their recruitment and payment processes. This process will be repeated in 2026. This questionnaire is also used for all new contractors or suppliers.
